About Me

I excel in full-stack MERN development, seamlessly integrating RESTful APIs to craft high-performing web-apps. From Express.js in back-end to React.js in front-end, I ensure top-notch user experiences throughout the development lifecycle.

Experience

- System Engineer
Tata Consultancy Services
(Nov, 2022 - Current)

Successfully integrated APIs for reference data management, enhancing data accessibility and efficiency.

Assisted in PostgreSQL migration, ensuring data integrity and gaining hands-on experience in migration processes.

Performed comprehensive unit, regression, and functional testing across backend, frontend, and database systems, ensuring robustness and reliability.
